

2024 SUMMER PROGRAMS FOR ADULTS

CRAFT WORKSHOPS

STARS, STRIPES, & SCRIMSHAW

Patriotic Connection for Independence Day

Did you know President Kennedy had one of the largest private scrimshaw collections? He even displayed his scrimshaw in the oval office! Discover the surprising patriotic history of scrimshaw (etched whalebone) and explore examples of US-themed scrimshaw design from our historic collection. Then sketch, carve, and ink our popular "fauxshaw" keychain.

SEASHELL TRINKET TRAY WORKSHOP

Mussels and clams and oysters, oh my! Discover the many mollusks that make their homes in the waters around Long Island. Explore the surprising history of oysters in New York and learn about current conservation efforts to secure these animals' future in the region. Then decorate a set of charming seashell trinket trays to take home - our hottest new craft.

LECTURES

 Virtual options available for lectures.

HAVE PETTICOAT, WILL TRAVEL

Dive into the little-known yet fascinating adventures of whaling wives, who sailed with their captain-husbands in the 19th century. Shocking at first and soon common, find out how trailblazing women broke boundaries in a male defined era and sailed the world. Explore what life was like for these women at sea, including where they traveled, what they ate, how they experienced childbirth and raised children, and how they celebrated holidays.

WHALERS 'ROUND THE WORLD

Sail away with incredible stories of American whalers who doubled as explorers as they traveled the world in pursuit of whales. Follow their fascinating trails through journal entries and photographs as they pushed unknown geographic boundaries to reach Antarctica, Japan, and the dangerous Arctic. Learn about their impacts on the places and people they encountered, and which adventures ended in triumph or disaster.

PIRATES & PRIVATEERS

Join us to explore the long and legendary history of piracy around the world. Discover the incredible true tales of marauders like Blackbeard and Anne Bonny, alongside lesser-known names such as Cold Spring Harbor's own Enoch Conklin. Learn to tell pirate fact from fiction as we uncover the origins of many persistent pirate myths.

OH! BABY: MOTHERHOOD AT SEA

Forget soccer moms, helicopter moms, and tiger moms - what about whaling moms? Follow clues in diaries and logbooks for fascinating insights into the private world of 19th century whaling wives who experienced pregnancy, childbirth, and raising children during global voyages. See how they endured difficult conditions, isolation, and sickness in our visually rich presentation.

JOURNEY INSIDE THE MIND OF A WHALE

Whales rank among the most intelligent species on the planet. Marvel at the depth and complexity that sets whale behavior apart from other species, including sophisticated memory skills, advanced societal structures, and unique dialects. Find out what researchers have uncovered about whales' thinking and their amazing behaviors in the wild - including tool use!
