

Summer Internship Opportunities Available

Gain new skills & knowledge
Expand your real-world experience
Have fun & make a difference!

The Whaling Museum is looking for energetic, creative interns to help run our fun summer programs and contribute to other museum projects.

What You'll Do:

- Assist with our hands-on programs that connect children with the ocean
- Develop educational materials
- Help with community building and education events
- Develop future exhibits
- Work with our historic archives

Who You Are:

- Enthusiastic, motivated, responsible, and a self-starter
- Grad or undergrad student with good written/verbal skills
- Comfortable trying new things & working with people, especially kids
- Background in Education, Biology, Environmental Studies, Art or History

Your Benefits:

- Gain College Credit
- Earn first-hand experience connecting communities with the wonders of our oceans and maritime history
- Broaden your experience in a historical institution
- Gain professional training in educational programs, working with children & families, writing, and outreach
- Work for an organization that benefits Long Island's diverse communities
- Possibility of a stipend at the end of the summer

Interested in joining our team?

Internships run June-August. Please send a cover letter and resume to Nomi Dayan, Director of Education, The Whaling Museum, PO Box 25, Cold Spring Harbor, NY 11724, or email ndayan@cshwhalingmuseum.org. Give us a call at (631) 367-3418 x17.

